

British and Portuguese Court of Mixed Commissions
Sine Die

Persons Edward Gregory Esquire His Britannic Majesty's Commissioner Judge, and J. P. M'Lasalle Esquire His Majesty's Commissioner Judge. Edward D'Almeida Esquire His Britannic Majesty's Commissioner of Probation being absent at the Colonial Quarter Sessions.

Present Mr. J. Sawyer Clerk to the Mixed Commissions.
James Woods Esquire being in attendance at the Colonial Quarter Sessions.

Thursday September 13th 1821

Portuguese Schooner Adelaide

Joze Gyl de Arago Master

The above named Commission Judges having perused the Papers of the said Schooner, as also the Declaration of Captain B. M. Kelly of H. M. Ship Pleasant the Captain proceeded to the examination in Court of Joze Gyl de Arago Master, and Manuel Joze Portocarrero of the said Portuguese Schooner Adelaide upon standing Interrogatories after which the Court adjourned until Saturday the 15th instant.